

BECAUSE YOU NEED TO ESCAPE...

Whether you need a retreat for your corporate conference or church; a place to come together again with old friends at a class reunion; a celebration of the generations at a family gathering; or you and yours just need to get away – you need to escape the ever-present crowds.

Savor morning moments by yourself; then come together in our unpretentious conference center or airy lodge lobby.

*Escape the traffic. Escape the cement.
Escape the high-rises.*

BECAUSE WE MADE A COMMITMENT

The Episcopal Church of Hawai'i purchased Camp Mokule'ia in 1947 to serve youth and adults. The site was once home to the McNerny family, an historic Hawaii family. A portion of the land was also home to a railroad that connected the north and south shore communities, and to the Armed Forces as an R&R center during WWII.

Today, Camp Mokule'ia is still a quiet interval from the world around us – a nonprofit beach camp available to groups, organizations, corporations, and families of all faiths.

Camp Mokule'ia

BECAUSE YOU NEED TO COMMUNE WITH NATURE...

Kick back, lie on soft, sun-kissed sand – choose your space anywhere on our nine beautiful beachfront acres. Go hiking or take a nature walk. The wondrous Waianae mountain range is your backdrop. Wade in the tide pools. Swim alongside honu, the sea turtles that make their home at Mokule'ia. End your day with spectacular sunsets as stunningly beautiful as your mind can imagine.

The only schedule is the one you make – and meal times. (Our meals, prepared for groups of ten or more, are simple, healthy, and reflect Island tastes – we will prepare special menus for special diets.)

*Escape the phones. Escape the computers.
Escape the deadlines.*

BECAUSE YOU NEED TO GO BACK IN TIME...

Our accommodations – cabins with bunk beds that sleep 14 to 22; a rustic campground lodge with rooms that sleep two or three; six acres for setting up your own tents; a cozy cottage; even a private beach house – have an old-time charm.

Whether you live in Hawaii, Alaska, the mainland USA, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South America, Europe, Asia or anywhere else in the world, there is no other place on Earth like this unspoiled part of Hawaii – a place back in time.

*Escape the crowds. Escape the mall.
Escape the high prices.*

BECAUSE YOU NEED SERENITY & ACTIVITY...

We are just a short drive from historic Haleiwa, Oahu's world-famous North Shore community where surf shops and shave-ice stands co-mingle. On the way, you'll pass the Mokule'ia Polo Field where you can catch a polo match – watch the players and horses or gaze at the awe-inspiring view.

Nearby activities include glider rides, a free-fall simulator and parachute jumping.

Don't dare to jump? We've got plenty to do right at the camp: go kayaking, canoeing, snorkeling, surfing, kite surfing, body boarding; play basketball, volleyball, archery, softball; and exercise in our own *swimming pool. (*Subject to fees, availability of water safety personnel & scheduling.)

*Escape the office. Escape the noise.
Escape the mundane.*
